RE: Profit Protection Endorsement

Profit Protection, LLC, also very familiarly known as the National Association for Bank Security, is a financial institution security and risk management educational and consulting firm that has served the industry for more than 25 years with its products and services. Those services are offered in not only all areas of security governed by the mandates of the five financial institution regulators, but all facets of Bank Secrecy Act regulation requirements as well.

In performing these services, NABS/Profit Protection, LLC offers bankers security management and BSA Seminars on an annual basis both directly and through 34 state bankers associations. Our clients can also take advantage of a telephone consulting service at no extra charge; The Advisor, a case history-driven bank security newsletter; comprehensive textbooks, manuals, and shorter printed information of topical interest dealing with security BSA and risk management matters; and educational videos oriented towards training in a wide variety of areas relative to bank security and BSA compliance functions. Combined with expertise in a wide variety of support departments, NABS/Profit Protection, LLC continues to provide the financial industry with top-quality, cost-effective broad-based services in the security and compliance fields, year-in, year-out.
