While the recognition of bank employees in newspapers and other media is traditional, bank community projects and endeavors need ongoing promotion, both from your institution and your Association. We hope that by providing a vehicle assembling worthy banking activities and events, the industry will be able to further its image in the eyes of the public. For more information, and to advertise in the magazine, please contact me at 860-677-5060 or via email at khoranzy@ctbank.com.
