RE: CBA/CFT Banker's Forum – Economic Update
Wednesday, May 15, 2019 – 5:30pm - Aqua Turf, Plantsville CT

The CBA/CFT Bankers' Forum provides attendees with information and education on current issues and opportunities impacting the industry, including regular updates focused on the Connecticut banking landscape. The Forum is a place for bankers to network and interact with their peers while enjoying dinner and industry-related speakers.

The CBA/CFT Bankers' Forum is appropriate for middle to senior level bankers, emerging leaders, CSFM current and former students, associate members and others. The meetings are held periodically throughout the year at the Aqua Turf in Plantsville, and feature timely programs, knowledgeable speakers and networking opportunities that appeal to bankers from all areas of your financial institution.

Speakers:

Kim Tuttle, Director of Education, Connecticut Bankers Association

Kim Tuttle is the Director of Education at the CT Bankers Association and Administrator of the CT School of Finance & Management. Kim sits on many committees as CBA liaison, including the Technology Committee, Financial Managers Society, Management Development Committee and Future Bankers Program and serves on the Bankers Forum Advisory Council. Kim will provide an overview of current CBA events and the CT School of Finance & Management

Todd P. Martin, President, Todd P. Martin Economic Services

Todd is President of Todd P. Martin Economic Services, an economic consulting firm located in Fairfield Connecticut and a professor of the practice of economics at Fairfield University. Todd was chief economist for People's United Bank for over 10 years and during his 25-year career at the Bank was responsible for asset liability management, strategic planning, fixed income portfolio management, and investment accounting. Todd also teaches economics courses for the Connecticut School of Finance & Management and was a member of Governor Jodi Rell's Council of Economic Advisors, an eight-member panel of economists that advised the Governor on key issues affecting the Connecticut economy from 2007 - 2011.
