The Connecticut Bankers Association has been consistently hosting important seminars and updates in virtual format throughout the COVID-19 pandemic. The CBA is proud to announce the release of our most current On-Demand webinars. The recorded webinars listed below are now available for purchase and can be viewed at your convenience. Simply click on the title of each webinar to view the details in the program's General Bulletin.

- Responding to Service of Process Virtual Seminar, facilitated by Attorneys Jim Byrne of Updike, Kelly & Spellacy, P. C. and CBA Vice President and General Counsel Art Corey
- Elder Fraud/Abuse Seminar, facilitated by Kathleen Titsworth, Banking Outreach Coordinator, Connecticut Department of Banking, Government Relations and Consumer Affairs; Lara Stauning, Legal Assistance Developer, Department of Aging and Disability Services Co-Chair of the Coalition for Elder Justice in CT and Jeff Siegel, Esquire
- CBA/CFT Banker's Forum Virtual Event, featuring Diversity, Equity & Inclusion, Naomi Mercer, SVP, Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion, American Bankers Association

Please click here to purchase any of the On-Demand webinars listed above. Each seminar recording can be purchased for $100 (incl. CT sales tax) per person and the Bankers Forum recording can be purchased for $35 (incl. CT sales tax) per person. You will receive an email within two business days of purchase containing a link to access the webinar recording, as well as all webinar related materials. The link will be unique to you and should NOT be shared with anyone. Please note, additional views will be invoiced separately.

Should you have any questions regarding these programs, please do not hesitate to contact the Association office. Thank you for your participation in our programs.

Sincerely,

KIMBERLY M. TUTTLE
