

Connecticut Community Bank

Client Service Account Executive

Job Description

The Client Service Account Executive role is responsible to manage a deposit portfolio for small and middle market businesses who primarily work in the insurance industry and are located throughout 50 states. Account Executives are responsible for strategically developing, qualifying, and closing opportunities with assigned accounts. This role also requires a wide range of support for deposit operations and is responsible for working with internal and external customers via phone and email.

Contact

careers@connecticutcommunitybank.com